

Florida Retired Educators Foundation

The Florida Retired Educators Foundation (FREF) awards scholarships to graduating seniors who wish to become teachers. Applications are submitted to the local Scholarship Chairs, and then forwarded on to FREF for evaluation. Winners are selected in March with funding that begins in time for the fall term of college. This scholarship pays $4000.00 over a four-year period: $1,000 per year. Money is given to the student, not sent to the institution.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FUTURE FLORIDA TEACHERS

It is impossible to estimate the contribution a great teacher makes to our nation, to society, and to the students taught during a lifetime of devoted service to the teaching profession. Unfortunately, there exists, and always has existed, a severe shortage of great teachers. The Florida Retired Educators Foundation (FREF) has established a fund to assist the many young people who are interested in teaching, but unable to fulfill this goal without financial assistance.

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be a GRADUATING HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR IN 2021
- Ability to relate to and work with people of all ages.
- Academic aptitude and achievement.
- Commitment to service, with special interest in teaching children and youth.
- Economic need
- Emphasis is placed on SAT and/or ACT scores. The minimum score for SAT is 1,000 or above (Reading and Math sections) or ACT is 22 or above.
- Participation and leadership in school and community activities.
- Poise and ability to communicate effectively.
- There is no restriction as to sex, race, religion, national origin, or size of school. FREF adheres to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

CONDITIONS

A scholarship is awarded to a high school graduating senior for one year and can be renewed for a maximum of four years of college if the student maintains a satisfactory level of achievement. Satisfactory achievement is defined as a 2.0 grade point average with no failing grade in any subject.

Scholarship recipients may attend any accredited Florida public or private community college, four-year college or university, provided that their programs are consistent with the goal of becoming a qualified teacher
